Matching Gifts Programs

Many employers sponsor matching gift programs and will match charitable contributions made by their employees, possibly doubling or tripling the impact of your gift. Some companies also match gifts made by retirees and/or spouses.

How can I find out if my company has a matching gift program?

Contact your human resources department to see if your employer (or your spouse's employer) has a matching gift program.

If your employer offers a matching gift program, contact HR for instructions on how to enroll an organization. Many companies matching gift forms are now available online through companies' intranet.

Once you have verified that your employer offers a matching gift program, all you need to do is:

Request a matching gift form from your company's HR department using H.E.A.L., Inc. address and TAX-ID or register the organization online.
